Sixty-fifth session

Agenda item 19

Follow-up to and implementation of the outcome of the 2002 International Conference on Financing for Development and the 2008 Review Conference

Proposed organization of work of the fifth High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development

Note by the Secretary-General

I. Introduction

1. The General Assembly, in its resolution 65/145, decided to hold its fifth High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development on 7 and 8 December 2011 at United Nations Headquarters and requested the Secretary-General to prepare a note on the organization of work of that event, based on the organizational modalities of the fourth High-level Dialogue. The present note is submitted in response to that request.

2. The arrangements set out below have been formulated on the basis of General Assembly resolution 64/194, entitled “Modalities for the fourth High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development”, and taking into account the experience, format, modalities and organization of work of the four previous Dialogues, held on 29 and 30 October 2003,¹ 27 and 28 June 2005,² 23 to 25 October 2007³ and 23 and 24 March 2010.⁴

II. Organizational arrangements

A. Dates and venue

3. The fifth High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development, comprising a series of plenary and informal meetings and multi-stakeholder round tables, will be held

² See A/59/850 and A/60/219.

³ See A/62/271 and A/62/550.

⁴ See A/64/377 and A/65/130.

on Wednesday and Thursday, 7 and 8 December 2011, at United Nations Headquarters in New York. It is proposed that the plenary meetings be held in the General Assembly Hall. The venues of the multi-stakeholder round tables will be announced at a later stage. All scheduled meetings will be announced in the Journal of the United Nations.

B. Overall theme

4. It is proposed that the overall theme of the fifth High-level Dialogue be: “The Monterrey Consensus and Doha Declaration on Financing for Development: status of implementation and tasks ahead”.

C. Schedule of meetings and organization of work

5. It is proposed that the High-level Dialogue consist of four plenary meetings on the overall theme stated above and three multi-stakeholder round tables and an informal interactive dialogue on the themes proposed in paragraphs 10 and 14 below. The proposed programme of the High-level Dialogue is contained in the annex to the present note.

D. Plenary meetings

6. It is proposed that the plenary meetings, chaired by the President of the General Assembly, be held on Wednesday, 7 December 2011, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m. and on Thursday, 8 December 2011, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. At these meetings, ministers and high-level officials attending the Dialogue will be able to make formal statements, on the understanding that the principle of precedence will be strictly applied. Each oral statement will be limited to five minutes, although this will not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts. No delegation will be allowed to speak more than once in plenary meetings. Time limits will be strictly observed. However, should the list of speakers so require, provisions will be made for an additional plenary meeting on 8 December, from 3 to 6 p.m. The inscription on the list of speakers will be announced in the Journal of the United Nations.

7. The plenary meeting on the morning of Wednesday, 7 December, will begin with the formal opening of the High-level Dialogue by the President of the General Assembly. At the opening, the Assembly will be able to take up any remaining organizational matters. The Secretary-General of the United Nations, the President of the World Bank, the Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund and the Director-General of the World Trade Organization will be invited to make statements.

8. At the beginning of the plenary meeting on the afternoon of Wednesday, 7 December, the President of the Economic and Social Council, the Secretary-General of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development and the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme, as the Chair of the United Nations Development Group, will be invited to make statements.

9. A short plenary meeting will be held on the afternoon of Thursday, 8 December, immediately following the conclusion of the informal interactive dialogue, in order to enable the President of the General Assembly to make a concluding statement and formally close the High-level Dialogue.

E. Multi-stakeholder round tables

10. Based on the experience of the fourth Dialogue, it is proposed that three multi-stakeholder round tables be held on the morning of Thursday, 8 December, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., on the following themes:

(a) Round table 1: “The reform of the international monetary and financial system and its implications for development”;

(b) Round table 2: “The impact of the world financial and economic crisis on foreign direct investment and other private flows, external debt and international trade”;

(c) Round table 3: “The role of financial and technical development cooperation, including innovative sources of development finance, in leveraging the mobilization of domestic and international financial resources for development”.

11. Each round table will be chaired by two Chairs, to be appointed by the President of the General Assembly from among the ministers attending the High-level Dialogue, including those nominated by the regional groups; of the six co-Chairs, three are to be drawn from developing countries and three from developed countries and countries with economies in transition. The President of the General Assembly may also invite the heads or high-level officials of relevant institutional stakeholders to act as lead discussants in the round tables.

12. Each round table will be open to participation by representatives of all Member States; 10 representatives of observers, relevant entities of the United Nations system and other accredited intergovernmental organizations; 3 representatives of accredited civil society organizations; and 3 representatives of accredited business sector entities. Each representative may be accompanied by one adviser. The list of non-State participants in the round tables will be established on a first-come, first-served basis, following an announcement in the Journal of the United Nations.

13. To promote an interactive discussion, no list of speakers will be established in round tables. The co-Chairs will call upon participants in the order in which they signify their desire to speak, on the understanding that the principle of precedence will be applied, to allow the participation of ministers in attendance. All participants will be invited to speak from their seats and will be requested to avoid reading from written statements. Each oral statement will be limited to three minutes, although this will not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts.

F. Informal interactive dialogue

14. It is proposed that the informal interactive dialogue, chaired by the President of the General Assembly, be held on the afternoon of Thursday, 8 December, in the form of an informal meeting with the participation of all relevant stakeholders. Based on the experience of the fourth Dialogue, it is proposed that the Dialogue focus on the theme “The link between financing for development and achieving the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals". The President of the General Assembly may invite the heads or high-level officials of major institutional stakeholders to make introductory remarks. Representatives of all relevant stakeholders, including organizations of the United Nations system, other accredited international and regional organizations and accredited civil society and business sector entities, will be able to participate, to the extent possible.

15. The informal interactive dialogue will be open to participation by representatives of all Member States; 15 representatives of observers, relevant entities of the United Nations system and other accredited intergovernmental organizations; 5 representatives of accredited civil society organizations; and 5 representatives of accredited business sector entities. Each representative may be accompanied by one adviser. The list of non-State participants in the interactive dialogue will be established on a first-come, first-served basis, following an announcement in the Journal of the United Nations.

16. To provide for a free-flowing, interactive discussion, no list of speakers will be established. The President of the General Assembly will call upon participants, in the order in which they signify their desire to speak, on the understanding that the principle of precedence will be applied, to allow participation of ministers in attendance. The co-Chairs of the round tables and other participants may wish to refer to the outcomes of the discussions in the round tables. All participants will be invited to speak from their seats and will be requested to avoid reading from written statements. Each oral statement will be limited to three minutes, although this will not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts.

III. Participants

A. Member States and observers

17. The High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development, including the plenary and informal meetings, will be open to participation by all States Members of the United Nations, the Holy See in its capacity as Observer State, and Palestine in its capacity as observer, as well as intergovernmental organizations having received a standing invitation to participate as observers in the sessions and work of the General Assembly, in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Assembly. Registration will be opened with the United Nations Protocol and Liaison Service in New York, following an announcement in the Journal of the United Nations.

B. Institutional stakeholders

18. Representatives of other relevant intergovernmental organizations that were accredited to the Monterrey Conference on Financing for Development and its follow-up process, including the Doha Review Conference, as well as relevant organizations of the United Nations system, may participate in the multi-stakeholder round tables and informal interactive dialogue. Registration will be opened with the United Nations Protocol and Liaison Service in New York, following an announcement in the Journal of the United Nations. Each multi-stakeholder round table will include 10, and the informal interactive dialogue 15, representatives of observers, entities of the United Nations system and accredited intergovernmental organizations other than observers. Their participation in the round tables and the informal dialogue will follow the practice established at the International Conference on Financing for Development and its follow-up process.

C. Civil society and the business sector

19. Representatives of non-governmental organizations and business sector entities are invited to participate in the multi-stakeholder round tables and the informal interactive dialogue in accordance with the rules of procedure of the General Assembly. Registration, through the United Nations Non-Governmental Liaison Service and the Financing for Development Office of the Department of Economic and Social Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat, will be open to: (a) all non-governmental organizations that are in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council; and (b) all non-governmental organizations and business sector entities that were accredited to the Monterrey Conference on Financing for Development and its follow-up process, including the Doha Review Conference. Each multi-stakeholder round table will include three, and the informal interactive dialogue five, representatives of accredited civil society entities and the same number of accredited business sector entities. Their participation in the round tables and the informal dialogue will follow the practice established at the International Conference on Financing for Development and its follow-up process.

IV. Documentation

A. Pre-session documentation

20. The substantive documentation of the fifth High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development will include reports of the Secretary-General on:

- (a) Follow-up to and implementation of the Monterrey Consensus and Doha Declaration on Financing for Development;
- (b) Innovative mechanisms of financing for development;
- (c) International financial system and development;
- (d) External debt sustainability and development;

and a summary by the President of the Economic and Social Council of the special high-level meeting of the Council with the Bretton Woods institutions, the World Trade Organization and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (New York, 10 and 11 March 2011) (A/66/75-E/2011/87).

B. In-session documentation

21. In-session documentation will include official (verbatim) records of plenary meetings.

C. Post-session documentation

22. The President of the General Assembly will prepare a summary of the High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development, which will be issued as a document of the General Assembly.

D. Inputs from all relevant stakeholders

23. Background information for the High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development, including inputs received from all relevant stakeholders, will be posted and updated, on a regular basis, on the website of the Financing for Development Office.⁵

V. Media arrangements

24. Press materials will be prepared by the Department of Public Information for journalists covering the High-level Dialogue on Financing for Development. In addition, the documents counter in the media area will provide all documents for the Dialogue, as well as press releases on plenary meetings, round tables and other events. They will also be made available electronically on the Financing for Development Office website.⁵

25. The plenary and informal meetings of the whole, as well as press conferences, will be broadcast live into the media area and webcast live and on demand. A programme of special media briefings and press conferences will be announced.

VI. Side events

26. A series of special events, including briefings and panel discussions on issues related to financing for development, is normally organized by Member States, organizations of the United Nations system and accredited institutional and non-institutional stakeholders for the participants in the High-level Dialogue. The calendar of those events will be posted on the Financing for Development Office website.⁵

VII. Recommendation

27. The General Assembly may wish to consider the proposals contained in the present note and define, by the end of its sixty-fifth session, the modalities of the High-level Dialogue, as appropriate.
